

TODXS CUENTAN

Every one of us counts

Axiom 1. Mathematical potential is distributed equally among different groups, irrespective of geo-graphic, demographic, and economic boundaries.

Axiom 2. Everyone can have joyful, meaningful, and empowering mathematical experiences.

Axiom 3. Mathematics is a powerful, malleable tool that can be shaped and used differently by various communities to serve their needs.

Axiom 4. Every student deserves to be treated with dignity and respect.